

Illness while at school

If a child becomes sick while at school, we will find a place for the student to rest, monitor the situation, and make the necessary arrangements if a student has to go home. Parents may be called to help clean up in the event of an illness related accident.