

Field Trips

Field trips can enhance and enrich student learning. Field trips may be incorporated into our curriculum at various times through the year to enhance curriculum topics if funds are available. Extended field trips will follow the same criteria, and all in-school rules (including transportation rules) apply.